Euro 2000

The European Football Championships is second to only the World Cup as the most prestigious event the World Game has to offer. From June 10-July 2 inclusive, the Netherlands and Belgium co-host Euro 2000, the eleventh instalment of UEFA's crowning of the best team in Europe.

Binesh Mudaliar looks at the sixteen countries which have been drawn into four groups.

GROUP A:
England, Germany, Portugal, Romania

GROUP B:
Belgium, Italy, Sweden, Turkey

GROUP C:
Norway, Slovenia, Spain, Yugoslavia

GROUP D:
Czech Republic, Denmark, France, Netherlands

THE CHAMPIONSHIP CONTENDERS

There are four blue ribbon teams in Euro 2000. The Netherlands, France, Italy, and Germany each have the pedigree to not just make a final or semi-final, but to win the European Championship outright.

NETHERLANDS

FIFA-Ranking (May 2000): 21
Major Honours: Euro '88 Champions
Coach: Frank Rijkaard

Such is the depth of talent available to Rijkaard that he has knocked on the door of Atletico Madrid striker Jimmy Floyd Hasselbaink as cover for the injured Ruud Van Nistelrooij. The Dutch squad is a who's who of football superstars-Edwin van der Sar (Juventus FC) and Ed De Hoey (Chelsea) will fight for the 'keeper's jersey, Red Devil Jaap Stam will be at the heart of Netherlands' defence, Juventus midfielder Edgar Davids is sure to dictate midfield matters, while keeping the media circus and fans enthralled will be the likes of Dennis Bergkamp, Marc Overmars (both Arsenal) and Patrick Kluivert (Barcelona).

FRANCE

FIFA-Ranking: 3
Major Honours: Euro '84 and 1998 World Cup champions
Coach: Roger Lemerre

The French squad is drawn from the glamour leagues of England, Italy, Spain, Germany and France and is expected to contain Real Madrid's wayward striker Nicolas Anelka. Football purists will see the best defender in the world, Lilian Thuram, in action again while the Chelsea trio of Marcel Desailly, Frank Leboeuf, and Didier Deschamps are eyeing more silverware after triumphing in the FA Cup recently. An early favourite for the Golden Boot is in-form Arsenal striker Thierry Henry.

ITALY

FIFA-Ranking: 14
Major Honours: Euro '68 and 1934, 1938, & 1982 World Cup champions.
Coach: Dino Zoff

The Italian national team has not won a major event for 18 years and Zoff was dealt a blow in his efforts to stop the drought when Christian Vieri was ruled out of the tournament because of a hamstring injury. In Vieri's absence, Zoff is likely to start with Juve strikers Filippo Inzaghi and Alessandro Del Piero. An interesting feature about the Zoff's initial 26-man squad was that all players were Serie-A based meaning no room for the prodigious talents of Paolo Di Canio and Benito Carbone.

GERMANY

FIFA-Ranking: 6
Major Honours: European Champions in 1972, 1980, and 1996. World Cup champions in 1954, 1974, and 1990
Coach: Erich Ribbeck

The reigning European Champions announced a shock selection in their Euro 2000 squad with the recall of veteran playmaker Thomas Hassler who will team-up with another golden oldie in Lothar Matthaus. Oliver Bierhoff will captain the side and his partner in attack is expected to be Bayer Leverkusen star, Ulf Kirsten.

THE DANGER TEAMS

TURKEY

FIFA-Ranking: 34
Coach: Mustafa Denizli

Galatasaray's UEFA Cup success can only have a positive impact on Turkey's chances in Euro 2000. Players selected by Denizli include Umit Davala, Okan Buruk, Suat Kaya, Ergun Penbe, and Hakan Sukur. Expected to play a starring role in midfield is Leicester City forward Muzzy Izzet, who this year finally accepted a call-up from Turkey after declining twice previously.

CZECH REPUBLIC

FIFA-Ranking: 2
Major Honours: Euro '76 Champions (as Czechoslovakia)
Coach: Jozef Chovanec

The Euro '96 finalist progressed to this year's Championships in an emphatic manner, winning all 10 qualifying games and loom as a massive threat to the other fifteen competitors. Liverpool star Patrik Berger is set to continue his rampaging club form in the Low Countries while towering Anderlecht striker Jan Koller will be a handful for all opposition.

YUGOSLAVIA

FIFA-Ranking: 11
Coach: Vujadin Boskov
The "Brazilians of Europe" are still waiting to hear if Lazio's dead-ball specialist Sinisa Mihajlovic will play in Euro 2000. Injury concerns and political allegiances are threatening to rob the tournament of a great talent. However, proven quality players such as Vladimir Jugovic (Atletico Madrid), Dejan Stankovic (Lazio), Predrag Mijatovic (Fiorentina), and Savo Milosevic (Real Zaragoza) ensure that Yugoslavia will have a good tournament.

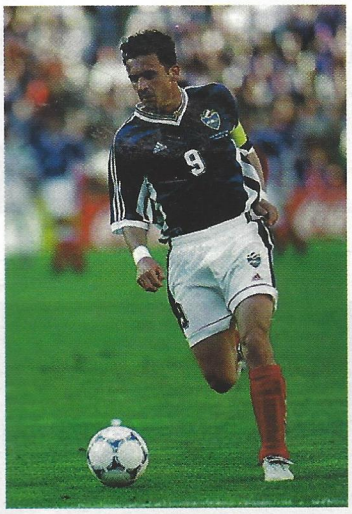
THE UNDERACHEIVERS

ENGLAND

FIFA-Ranking: 12
Major Honours: 1966 World Cup Champions
Coach: Kevin Keegan
Like so many of their national teams, England lack the killer instinct to win major tournaments, despite having one of the most talented squads on show. The passing and crossing of Old Trafford wizard David Beckham will be worth the late nights while one sincerely hopes that Keegan hands starting berths to members of the younger generation such as Michael Owen and Kieron Dyer.

SPAIN

FIFA-Ranking: 4
Major Honours: Euro '64
Coach: Jose Camacho
At the time of writing, Camacho had not included any players from Champions League finalists, Real Madrid and Valencia, nor Spanish Cup finalists, Atletico Madrid and Espanyol. Nevertheless, Spain's hopes fall heavily on the shoulders of 22 year-old Real Madrid striker Raul. Two goals from Raul against Manchester United at Old Trafford in the Champions League quarterfinal dumped the holders from the prestigious competition.



Yugoslavia's Predrag Mijatovic (a team mate of Paul Okon's at Fiorentina)

THE OUTSIDERS

BELGIUM

FIFA-Ranking: 30
Coach: Robert Waseige
Goals from English-based strikers Branko Strupar and Gilles De Bilde are vital for Belgium if they are to progress beyond the group stage. Seasoned Anderlecht defender, Lorenzo Staelens, will play in his first European Championships despite ten years of international football.

PORTUGAL

FIFA-Ranking: 15
Coach: Humberto Coelho
Coelho has command of some of the most gifted players on the continent such as Barcelona's Luis Figo, Parma's Paulo Sousa, and Fiorentina midfielder Rui Costa. Real Sociedad's Ricardo Sa Pinto is entrenched as the side's number one striker following his return from a ban for punching the 1997 national coach.

ROMANIA

FIFA-Ranking: 10
Coach: Emerich Jenei
Gheorghe Popescu and Gheorghe Hagi are fresh from Galatasaray's UEFA Cup victory against Arsenal while goals are likely to come courtesy of Adrian Ilie, Adrian Mutu, and Viorel Moldovan.

SWEDEN

FIFA-Ranking: 16
Coach: Tommy Soderberg
Fans face painting the yellow and blue of Sweden have their fingers crossed for the availability of Celtic striker Henrik Larsson. Larsson made his comeback from a broken leg in the final round of Scottish Premier League matches. Coventry City goalkeeper Magnus Hedman and Arsenal tyro Freddie Ljungberg are also players to watch.

NORWAY

FIFA-Ranking: 8
Coach: Nils Johan Semb
Norway's charge will be led by their English Premier League brigade which includes Ole Gunnar Solskjaer, Henning Berg, Vegard Heggem, Tore Andre Flo, and Eirik Bakke. Manchester United defender Ronny Johnsen has been ruled out of Euro 2000 because of injury.

SLOVENIA

FIFA-Ranking: 45
Coach: Srecko Katanec
The money man for the lowest ranked team in Euro 2000 is Olympiakos midfielder Zlatko Zahovic. Zahovic hit nine goals in Euro 2000 qualifying matches and was the top scorer in the 1998-99 Champions League for FC Porto.

DENMARK

FIFA-Ranking: 13
Major Honours: Euro '92 Champions
Coach: Bo Johansson
Sporting Lisbon goalkeeper Peter Schmeichel is the heart and soul of Denmark but will have to be in the form of his life to keep the French, Dutch, and Czech Republic strikers at bay. The Danes are looking towards Jon Dahl Tomasson (Feyenoord), Thomas Helveg (AC Milan), and Martin Jorgensen (Udinese) for further inspiration.

Euro 2000

JUST WHO WILL TAKE OUT THIS YEAR'S EURO 2000?

CELEBRITY TIPS

It looks like it's the year of the Orange (Netherlands) according to most of our celebrity tipsters when Super Soccer's Patrick Galloway and Binesh Mudaliar asked for their Championship tips.

Tom Sermanni, Coach of the Canberra Cosmos

"Well Holland for three reasons. The first being the home ground advantage, secondly I think they are due to win a big tournament and three; they've got a quality side."

Branko Culina, Coach of Sydney Olympic

"Well I'd have to say Holland otherwise my son Jason would kill me! I think they've got the team and definitely the home ground advantage will help their cause a great deal. As was the case with France in the World Cup it means an enormous amount to have your fans behind you.

Colin Luff, Bonnyrigg White Eagles

"I don't know how anyone could go past Holland with the home ground advantage."

Joe Watson, Coach of Fairfield Bulls

"That's a tough one - I think Holland. France are looking pretty good as well but I'd definitely be putting my money on Holland."

Zeljko Kalac, Roda JC and Australia

"How could I go past Holland? Of course, Euro 2000 is the big thing in The Netherlands at the moment but they really do have a quality side to go with the fanatical home ground support. I also wouldn't write off the Czech Republic - we've (Australia) played them and they're a very strong side right across the park."

Matthew Percy

Frank Farina, Coach of Australia

"England. Dark horse, Czech Republic."

Matt Percy, Canterbury Marrickville Berries

"My heart is with England and I wish all the best to Alan Shearer in his last international tournament. I was in Holland recently and the hype over Euro 2000 is unbelievable. It should be a great tournament."

Dale Eggleton, Coach of Central Coast Coasties

"Netherlands. I like their possession game and positive attacking play. My smokey is England because I think a good performance in Euro 2000 augurs well for 2006 World Cup selection.

Ken Schembri, Football Director, Blacktown City Demons

"I think that the final will be between France and England with the classy French to take the honours. My dark-horse is Denmark because they have more and more players performing on the world stage."

St George took a step nearer securing a top three spot with a hard-fought 1-0 win over the Fairfield Bulls on a bitterly cold afternoon at St George Stadium.

With the two teams below the Saints, Leichhardt and Parramatta, fighting out a 1-1 draw at Lambert Park the win for St George sees them move into pole position for third place - and more importantly a life-line come finals time.

In contrast, a win for the Bulls would have seen them just two points behind Parramatta who are in 5th spot, but this defeat means they are five points adrift of the Eagles.

The Bulls weren't helped with the absence of striker Matthew Borg, while George Zabetakis played for an hour despite being rated as only 50/50 to play by coach Joe Watson before the game.

The only goal of the game came in an enjoyable first half, where both teams had chances to score. 30 minutes had elapsed when striker Manuel Papageorgiou turned cleverly on the byline, and his cross was put away by partner Jim Bakis, who troubled the Bulls all game. It was the Bulls who had the early efforts in the game - Sal Larocca hitting a good shot from the edge of the penalty area after just three minutes, but Les Bihari saved comfortably. Five minutes a free kick from the right saw Darren Iocca manage to create some space in the penalty area, but his shot lacked power as the Bulls pressed forward.

St George spurned a great chance on 14 minutes when Bakis raced through, and ignoring the calls for offside opted not to shoot but to square it to Papageorgiou. His shot went goalwards but Michael Cavallaro was alert enough to clear the ball off the line. To be fair, Papageorgiou should never have given Cavallaro the chance. Two minutes later Fairfield came equally close, Zabetakis hitting the post after Mark Hoenselaars had caused confusion in the St George penalty area. Bihari got a touch on the ball to take it away from Hoenselaars, but with the goalkeeper on the floor Zabetakis could only hit the post - although two defenders had got back in case the shot was goal-bound.

Bakis then set up for Papageorgiou to shoot wide on 20 minutes, but ten minutes later the pair combined for what turned out to be match-winning effect.

A minute after scoring Bakis should have made it 2-0, running through to chip the ball over the stranded Dragon Pupovac, but the ball sailed just wide.

Hoenselaars then appealed for a penalty on 38 minutes when he was appeared to have been hauled down inside the penalty area, although the big striker appeared to have been as much the perpetrator as victim.

Half time came with the Saints 1-0 ahead, and those in the press box -including former Socceroo coach Frank Arok - predicting that it should be a dazzling second half.

It wasn't. By any stretch of the imagination.

Simon Verrender tried to chip the ball over Pupovac just three minutes into the second period, and the next bit of action came when Darren Iocca did well for the Bulls to cross for Hoenselaars, who could only head over. The only problem was that nearly half an hour had elapsed between the two incidents, and with the cold wind howling through it felt much longer than that.

With nine minutes left only a fine Pupovac save denied Bakis, but there was to be no more action in what was a very disappointing 45 minutes. It was a day that only defensive players really stood out, although for the 59 minutes he did play Zabetakis always looked dangerous. For St George Terry Palapanis is a quality signing and will get better with each game for his new club, while the players that have formed the back-bone of the team's defence, Petratos, Verrender, Bolianitis and Kladis all performed well to keep a clean sheet.

For the Bulls Iocca showed his usual quality playing in a more advanced position than he would like, while Paul Bourke was as solid as always.

St George coach John Sentas said after the game, "I am very happy to get the 3 points. I was happy with the first half but in the end we just didn't handle the conditions well."

Sentas also thought that a pitch that had seen nine games of soccer in just two days had been not surprisingly of average quality, saying, "The funny thing is I still don't know how the team (St George) can play!"

There will be many other clubs in Super League who hopes he doesn't find out come finals time.

As for the Bulls, the absence of Borg, Roman Nikolic and the doubts over the fitness of Zabetakis was shrugged off before the game by Watson, who simply said, "That sums up our season."

The Bulls' fate could well be sealed next win if they lose to neighbours Bonnyrigg. A loss and a Parramatta win would see Fairfield eight points adrift of 5th spot with just four games to play. Conversely, a win and the Bulls stay in touch, especially if the Eagles keep collecting draws rather than wins.

St George meanwhile entertain Eastern Suburbs in what is officially an 'away' game for them, the game having been switched from Wentworth Park, and another three points from them could well see that third place looking more and more secure. As always, its going to be another interesting weekend of games as we start getting into finals mode in Super League 2000.

Super League Round 21

Bonnyrigg v Sutherland

Serbian Centre, Saturday 27 May

Bonnyrigg, 5 (Mancino 8', Gunn 35'/65'/85', Reid 80/) - Sutherland, 0

Bonnyrigg: Allen, Green, Dragas, Reid, Mancino, Luff, Devrimol, Gomez, Hawrysiuk, Van Bentum, Gunn SUBS USED: Utjesenovic, 60'; Harding, 80'; Ghisso, 85.

Sutherland: Olla, Merralls, Allison, Tedesco, Donnelly, Salim, Harrod, Wurth, Paradisis, Karanosos, Gibson SUBS USED: Hilton, 38'; Kaznik, 64'.

Shots: 5
Corners: 3
Fouls: 4
Cautions: Karanosos, Paradisis
Send Off: Hilton (88')

Super Soccer Rating: 5

Summary: It took Bonnyrigg just eight minutes to get going against a determined Sharks outfit, with Mancino's well-taken shot from close range. Sutherland fought back but without any luck at all. Leigh Gunn, only a young player, had an outstanding game for Bonnyrigg scoring three brilliant goals at the 35th, 65th and 85th minutes.

Overall, Sutherland had no answer for the fast-running Bonnyrigg forwards. They had little chance to score because of Bonnyrigg's strong defence in the guise of Devrimol, Dragas and Green. The scoreline was capped-off by a good goal from the big fellow, David Reid, in the 80th minute.

'Sir' John Turner was happy with the performance of his White Eagles team. Despite the unseasonably cold and windy weather, it was a very enjoyable night for the big turnout of Bonnyrigg devotees.

Macarthur Rams v Central Coast

Lynwood Park, Saturday 27 May

Macarthur Rams 2 (O'Shea 34', Jones, 89') - Central Coast Coasties, 1 (Own Goal, 9')

Macarthur: Munsie, Judge, Goodfellow, Bourke, McAusland, Willard, O'Shea, Bishop Cumming Issa (Macerola 72'), Williams (Jones 84')

Shots: 9
Corners: 2
Fouls: 8
Cautions: 0

Central Coast: Meier, Matthews, Steele, Hokin, Peatey, Knight, Roberts, Ritchie, Marshall (Byrn 70'), Sontag (Preston 75'), Daley

Shots: 6
Corners: 2
Fouls: 4
Cautions: Marshall, 74'

Super Soccer rating: 4

Summary: The chilly winter's night couldn't suppress the quality football displayed by both teams in this game.

The Coasties took an early lead when Peter Ritchie hit a low, hard cross which deflected off Matt O'Shea into his own net. The Rams looked unsettled, and in the 13th minute the Coasties were on the attack again when Knight took on Munsie and was awarded a penalty. Sontag took the spot kick but shot over the bar.

The Rams fought hard in defence, denying a number of promising raids by the Coasties and were rewarded for their efforts when Bishop threaded a pass through the Coasties' defence for O'Shea to blast a shot under Meier in the 34th minute. The score remained locked at 1-1 at half-time.

The second half proved even more exciting with both sides trying to penetrate and score the winning goal. It wasn't until Peter Preston came on to replace Sontag that the Coasties started to get on top, with scoring opportunities to Knight and Preston desparately saved by Munsie. The turning point came in the 42nd minute when some great lead-up work by the Coasties found Knight in space. With only Munsie to beat, his shot went over the bar, along with the Coasties' hopes. The Rams dug deep and in the 89th minute sealed the win when Meier deflected a one-on-one with O'Shea into the path of substitute, Ryan Jones, who calmly found the back of the net.

Special mention should be made of the referee, Vic Gauci, for an excellent job.

Eastern Suburbs Wanderers v Penrith Panthers

Andrews Road Field, Sunday 28 May

Eastern Suburbs Wanderers, 1 (Mikoutski, 24') - Penrith Panthers, 3 (M Driene, 31'/39', Ackerley, 41')

Eastern Suburbs: Anastasiadis, Segreton, Sharpley, Shepherd, Ekinici, Jerkovic (Pullicino 69'), Lorenz, Nicholls, Deighan, Mikoutski, Alexopoulos SUBS NOT USED: Atsas, Beverley, Maxwell, Premutico

Shots: 9
Corners: 5
Free kicks: 14
Cautions: Sheperd 50', Lorenz 88'

Penrith Panthers: Necevski, Collier (Worobiej 84'), Sweeney, Grima (Davies 84'), Wright, Fitzharris, A Driene, Ackerley, Hinton, M Driene, Picken SUBS NOT USED: Siciliano, Martin, Hawkins

Shots: 10
Corners: 3
Free kicks: 13
Cautions: Hinton 83', Picken 84'

Super Soccer rating: 2

Summary: In a game played in atrocious conditions, the Panthers put away their chances while the Wanderers continued to see good play come to nothing deep in their opponent's end of the field.

The Wanderers started brightly after Mikoutski put away a quickly taken free kick after a back pass was committed by the Panthers. Martin Dirence then got a double when, firstly, his free kick took a deflection and gave Anastasiadis no chance; then, secondly, the ball dropped nicely for him and he made no mistake from close range. Ackerley was then clinical with his finish once the ball also dropped nicely for him and he slotted it past the diving Anastasiadis.

The second half saw The Wanderers dominate possession but time and time again, their attacks broke down. They had plenty of chances but when Pullicino's shot fell nicely for Mikoutski after being blocked by the Panthers' defence, Mikoutski hit it straight at Necevski. With the ball falling for Alexopoulos who was also to be denied by a Panthers' defender heading the ball over the bar, they knew it wasn't to be their day.

Leichhardt Tigers v Parramatta Eagles

Lambert Park, Sunday 28 May

Leichhardt 1(Macolino 47') - Parramatta 1 (Joseski 46')

Leichhardt: Woods, Macolino, Dowling, Galluzzo, Nicol, Lal, Tesoro, Stubbs-Mills, Bruni, (Adioski), Karavatakis, Talcevski
Cautioned: Dowling

Parramatta: Holmes, Dwyer, Meilak, Revely, Bazdaric, Anderson, Mittiga, Joseski (Nolan), Phipps(Delicata), Boskovski (Trpovski), Borg.

Super Soccer Rating: 3

Parramatta Eagles travelled to Lambert Park to do battle with the Leichhardt Tigers in a vital match, with both sides needing a win to remain in contention for the vital third place on the table. After an open game which provided plenty of chances, the points were shared with each side scoring within two minutes of the kick-off for the second stanza.

Playing into a bitterly cold wind in the first half, Leichhardt took control of the game from the outset, with Fabian Macolino in dominant form in the middle of the park, and Karavatakis and Bruni always looking dangerous in attack. Jason Lal may have opened the scoring after 5 minutes, when his thunderbolt from 18 yards took a nasty deflection, only to pass the wrong side of the upright with Eagles keeper Jason Holmes stranded.

As the first half wore on, the Eagles gradually began to threaten, mainly through the tireless chasing of Adam Anderson and Nikolce Joseski, who almost punished Tigers defender Michael Galluzzo for dwelling too long on the ball in his own area, and went close to drawing an error from the sometimes over-ponderous Tigers defence on a couple of other occasions.

The second half was less than a minute old when the Eagles shocked the Tigers with an opportunistic goal. With Jason Lal losing possession on the left for the Eagles, Malcolm Meilak was quick to float in a cross to the far post, finding an uncovered Joseski who headed home. With the Eagles celebrations barely over, their lead had been cancelled out, after Tigers'

Stubbs-Mills' quick cross from the right was dealt with indecisively by the Eagles defence, leaving Macolino sufficient time and space to flick the loose ball over the head of Jason Holmes.

While there was no further score, it was not for want of effort, particularly from the Tigers, who were more successful in holding onto possession, and used the speed of Karavatakis, Stubbs-Mills, and later Adioski to stretch the Eagles defence, and continually threaten the Eagles goal.

Parramatta's Anthony Mittiga troubled Jason Lal, and provided the Eagles with penetration down the left side, but his work was rarely converted into dangerous moves on goal. A desperate save with the feet by Jason Holmes after a close range strike from Yane Talcevski just minutes from time probably saved the Eagles the point for the draw, with Leichhardt considering themselves unlucky not to emerge with full points from what was an enthralling game between two worthy finals contenders.

Super Soccer rating: 3

Summary: A Damien Brown strike was the difference between the league pace setters, Blacktown City, and Canterbury-Marrickville on a chilly afternoon at Henson Park last Sunday with the Demons emerging 1-0 victors.

The first half of play was an even affair, although Canterbury should have been up by one at the break. In the 37th minute Adrian Vizzari was brought down in the area by Blacktown keeper Fernando Greco. Jim Nikas stepped up to take the spot kick and although he placed it well, Greco made up for his misdemeanor, diving low and to his left to push the ball out for a corner.

In the second half Blacktown began to push harder for the winner and Canterbury spent most of the half pegged back in their own third of the field, looking for opportunities on the counter attack. With Blacktown failing time and time again to capitalise on their wealth of possession it looked as though the game may have ended in a draw.

Damien Brown changed all that though, capping off a fine game with a goal in the 85th minute of play. Brown blasted home a shot from just inside the area, past the outstretched arm of Jose Bello-Amigo in the Canterbury goal to move the Demons to 45 points, still tied with Bonnyrigg in first position on the ladder although Brian Brown and his men do have a game in hand.

Round 22 Preview

by Greg Stock

At Pluim Park on Saturday night the Central Coast Coasties will be looking to bounce back from a horrific road trip to Campbelltown last weekend when they host Canterbury-Marrickville. The team was "gutted" after they allowed the Rams a stoppage time winner knowing full well their chances for their first Super League semi-final spot were on the line. While they are still a mathematical possibility of achieving that, their task will be to win all their remaining six matches and hope that the other sides above them drop points. The first step on that trail starts against Canterbury who fought out a tough game last weekend against the league leaders, Blacktown. Coach Jim Patikas was proud of his boys but not the way they squandered a good chance of gaining a much needed point with some poor finishing. Talented midfielder Roberto Bustos has, it seems, parted company with Canterbury and his loss will be a tough hole to fill. Their round one encounter at Henson Park was a 2-0 win to the Coasties in a game that saw the demise of Canterbury's former coach John Xipolitas.

The much improved Rams take a trip across southern Sydney to meet the struggling Sutherland Sharks at Seymour Shaw Park. Macarthur bobbed up last Saturday night to record a tough win at home to the Coasties and will be keen to continue some good form that has seen the side unbeaten for the past three starts. Despite the fact that neither of these sides will be appearing in the Super League semi-finals this game is sure to be a hard fought one following on from the one all draw these two sides played out in round one. Sutherland have had ten goals put through them in 180 minutes of football while their forwards have been well held. The Rams have a real chance of snaring three points in this game and continuing their recent run of good form.

Saturday night also sees the much awaited return clash between last year's Grand-finalists, Blacktown City and the Parramatta Eagles. The last loss the Demons have had this season occurred in this round nine clash at Melita Stadium where the Eagles were able to knock over the Demons by two goals to one. Since then Blacktown have gone on an unbeaten run that so far numbers 11 games. Parramatta as well have been impressive and their unbeaten run so far numbers 16 games but has included 9 draws, some of which have been played out against the lower sides. Coach Roberto Viera knows that three points at this stage of the season is vital to put a break between his side and the sixth placed Bulls who still have a chance of knocking them off. One thing is for sure, these two sides should produce some entertaining football as both adopt an attacking side, mind you it would be a brave soul to tip the result in this match.

On Sunday, the St George Saints meet Eastern Suburbs at St George Stadium. The Wanderers season has really been a disappointing one and last week's humbling loss to Penrith is just another case of what might have been. Without star striker Jimmy Aschner on the park and in form, the side has really lacked the punch necessary to put pressure on the top sides and win games consistently. With only three points from their last six starts the wheels have definitley fallen off and against the Saints this week they will really be up against it. St George out-muscled the Bulls last week and with only one loss in their past six outings the Saints form has been solid. Flanker Emmauel Papageorgiou has been impressive of late while experienced campaigner Elias Augerinos has stepped up a notch covering for the key loss of skipper Mark Brennan. Max Sevares was back last week after sitting out three weeks with suspension and he put in another solid performance impressing coach John Sentas. The Saints go into this match as favourites and their loyal legion of fans should expect another win.

At the Serbian Centre Bonnyrigg will host the Fairfield Bulls in what shapes up as a make or break match for the Bulls 2000 campaign. Still sitting five points adrift of fifth spot the Bulls need to keep winning in order to bridge that gap and give themselves any chance. Without Mathew Borg last week the side struggled away at St George. The door was left slightly open by the Eagles who could only manage a draw against Leichhardt which still gives the Bulls a decent chance to sneak back into contention. Skipper George Zabetakis will be touch and go to be fit for this match struggling with some niggling injuries. For Bonnyrigg, Colin Luff, Johnny Ghisso and Robert Gomez form a lethal combination in front of goal and have been joined by youngster Leigh Gunn who chimed in with a hat-trick against the Sharks last week. Bonnyrigg are still locked in a two horse dogfight with Blacktown to decide the minor premiership and on paper at least look to have the Bulls well in hand.

It's been three successive wins for Bankstown under Billy McColl. All of a sudden his Lions have got a sniff of a berth in the semi-final series and despite having a tough draw in the remaining five games their recent form has been impressive enough to suggest they will be more than just nuisance value for their opponents. Ian McDonald has been a revelation since his move from Lynwood Park and with some good talented youngsters like Goce Trposki and Michael Lemazina in good form they will are going to be a handful. At home on Sunday they face the Penrith Panthers who are finishing off their first season in Super League in fine style. Two wins and a draw from their last four starts has seen the Panthers put pay to any chance of the wooden spoon and cause a more than a few heartaches for their opposition. Their 3-2 win over Easts last week was full of merit and with spot in the Summer League beckoning for next season all of coach Stan Ackerley's young side will be keen to impress. With so much to play for you'd have to favour the Lions but this will be one game not for the faint hearted.

The final game in round twenty two sees the Tigers travel to Cromer Park to meet cellar dwellers Manly-Warringah. Manly's poor form continued again last week with a 2-0 loss to Bankstown and while their season may be over as far as the semi-finals are concerned there is still the unresolved question of the 'wooden spoon'. With only three points separating them from the Sharks at the bottom of the ladder, if the Dolphins can jag a win here they may well be able to escape the dreaded 'spoon' and offload it to Sutherland. Fourth placed Leichhardt drew last week against the Eagles and will be keen for three points to steer clear of any potential dogfight for fifth spot. Two points from the last three starts is not good form but against what looks like easier opposition the Tigers should roar back to record another win.

Gladesville v NSWITC
Peel Park, Sunday 28 May

Gladesville,1 (Porteus 73')- NSWITC,1 (Ghorra 20')

Gladesville: Goldsmith, Young, Abbonizio (Tredinnick 73'), Cotton, Waterhouse, Korshawn, Porteus, Gibb, Fagan, Moxham, Lomax.

Shots: 15
Corners: 1
Fouls: 8

NSWITC: Kell, Frewin, Northcote, Ghorra, McMinimee, Wilson, Morison (Stavrou 70'), Todd, O'Neil, Linton, M.McLaughlin.

Shots: 21
Corners: 7
Fouls: 7

Super Soccer Rating: 4

Summary: Gladesville edged further away from the wooden spoon by holding a below strength NSWITC to a thrilling 1-1 draw. NSWITC played some outstanding football in the first half, and were clearly the better side. Amanda Ghorra found the back of the Gladesville net in the 20th minute with a nice shot to the far corner of the goals. From there on it looked as though the youthful NSWITC side were going to go on with the job. Liz Morison and Katherine Wilson both struck the framework in the first half, leaving the NSWITC to head to half time break with just a 1-0 lead.

The second half allowed Gladesville to get back into the match and the home side was able to equalise through Heidi Porteus in the 73rd minute, to bring about a grandstand finish. NSWITC had numerous one on one situations with the Gladesville goalkeeper, one of them in the dying seconds of the match, but the winning goal continually eluded them. For Gladesville Lomax, Porteus and Gibb had strong matches, while for the NSWITC Wilson, Todd and Kell led the way. NSWITC were without four key players due to representative commitments, suspension and sickness, leaving them with only one player on the reserves bench. The NSWITC have now made their task of making the semi finals a little more difficult and face Manly in a mid week catch up game on Wednesday, before taking on top of the table Sutherland in this weeks match of the round at Parklea on Saturday.

In other Women's Super League matches ...

Round 14 produced a major upset with Nepean defeating Northern NSW 2-1. Northern NSW were without five key players on representative duties, and will also be without them in next weeks local derby against Central Coast.

Nepean will attempt to roll on their good form when they take on Marconi who beat them 9-0 earlier this season.Although Marconi will be fresh for the match, as their round 14 match of the day clash with Manly had to be postponed as the referee and match officials failed to arrive at the ground.

Central Coast defeated Macarthur 1-0 to continue their push for a semi final position, now just three points behind NSWITC in fifth place. Central Coast will be aiming to lift for a big game against a vulnerable Northern NSW side this week. Sutherland defeated Wollongong 3-2 to move from 3rd place to the top of the table, due to other results over the course of the weekend.

Sutherland will now start their tough run home which sees them play the top three sides, apart from themselves, over the last four rounds of the competition, starting with NSWITC on Saturday. Wollongong, who have not been kept scoreless since they played Manly in round 6, will be attempting to turn the tables on their rivals Manly, the side which beat them in the grand final of the State league competition last season. Macarthur will be aiming for their second win of the season in a last ditch bid to avoid the wooden spoon when the meet Gladesville, in the bottom of the table clash.

Pepsi Super Youth League

Sydney Olympic v Manly Warringah
Potts Park, Saturday 27 May

Under 16s

Sydney Olympic, 5 - Manly Warringah, 0

Sydney Olympic: Kovacevic, Hallinan, Vagenas, Lioutas, Hahiti, Hunt, Cheika, Permall, Lambert, Andronopoulos, Tsakirios, Tsouris, Karavellas, Susak, Hristodoulou, Langon

Manly Warringah: Forst, Stedman, Pichon, Gale, Mesiti, Kokoris, Pike, Lipschitz, Davidson, Vozzo, Jenke, Carrassi, Roff, Tallarida, Gigliotti, Lake

Super Soccer rating: 3

Summary: A sloppy game played in terrible windy conditions which made it impossible to play good football. Olympic capitalised to score four first-half goals including a penalty.

Manly could not capitalised on a number of mix-ups in the Olympic goal in the second half and, to their credit, Manly only conceded one second-half goal.

Good games for Manly from Gale, Pichon and Davidson. Olympic's attack will do well through Tsakirios, Hallinan. Hunt and Vagenas covered any defensive mishaps brilliantly.

Unfortunately, the referee did not record the goalscorers so they cannot be included in this report.

Nepean, 0 - Blacktown, 2

Super Soccer rating: 2

Summary: A game Nepean were not in. Many wasted opportunities and crucial mistakes at the back let Blacktown get away with the game. Good games for Nepean by Stephen Osborne, Shaun Maroney and Daniel Cejas.

Under 16s

Nepean, 0 - Blacktown, 1

Super Soccer rating: 3

Summary: A close contest between two good sides. Many opportunities were created by both teams. However, strong defence saved certain goals. Nepean showed that they are capable of in a most improved performance. Good games by Daniel Rosier, Daniel Nalder and Kevin Thoms.

All reports from Nepean.

The Coaches

Jim Patikas

by Greg Stock

The footballing resume of Jim Patikas needs little introduction to the football fans of Australia.

With his trademark hard running style the talented midfielder hit the headlines in the mid 1980s as a member of Sydney City.

Subsequent stints with Olympic and Sydney United elevated Patikas into the Socceroo side under the coaching of Frank Arok where his long black locks and never-say-die attitude made him a favourite amongst the Aussie fans. Wearing the green and gold shirt in the second leg of the World Cup Qualifier against Scotland at Olympic Park in 1985, Patikas was at his inspirational best and his performance drew rave reviews.

At the end of that game he was sadly lost to the fans of Australian soccer as he followed his dream of playing first division football in Greece. For eleven seasons Patikas plied his trade with the same enthusiasm that had made him one of Australia's most likeable footballers. Stints with AEK Athens, Athniakos and Kastoria included several opportunities for Jim to play against the top clubs in Europe in UEFA Cup ties, in a football environment he describes as "sensational".

His return to Australia in 1995 was marked by one final season with his former club, Sydney United, before a leg injury during pre-season training with Sydney Olympic in 1996 finally forced the hand of this talented midfielder and he hung up his boots.

The retirement was short-lived as the next stage in Jims impressive resume started to take shape.

Despite his imposing playing record he elected to start a coaching career at the bottom in an effort to learn the game and perfect his skills. An offer to coach the Super Youth League Under 13s at Canterbury was accepted and Jim started on the next phase of his football career.

"I really enjoy coaching the kids," he explained. "It's a great thrill to help a kid to develop his skills and hopefully one day I might be able to give him an opportunity to play first grade."

It was a brave move by the Formeroo who was also on the short list of other senior clubs looking for a coach but one that wasn't lost on the commitee at Canterbury-Marrickville. When the coaching tenure of John Xipolitas finished in early March it was Patikas who was asked if he wanted to take the reins of the first grade side.

"It wasn't easy," remarked Patikas after watching his sides first game at Seymour Shaw Park. "I only had a few runs with the boys prior to this game but we won the points with some hardwork and determination. I've been given the responsibility of looking after the team and my aim is still the semi-finals and I firmly believe we can go close."

His first game might have been a 2-1 grafting win but two subsequent losses to Fairfield and Eastern Suburbs were a quick reminder of how harsh the world of coaching can be.

"We have the potential to make the semi-finals but we need to develop a bit of consistency and play like we did against Bankstown City (a 3-0 win). Every performance since the Sutherland game has been better and we are slowly reaching the point where I think we can play good football and be very competitive."

Patikas has also been ruthless in the running of his side, shuffling around his charges as he looks for the best combination.

"The difference between coaches (in this competition) is the types of players that want to come and play for you. I only stopped playing four years or so ago and so I do know a lot of guys that are in the team and they are willing to come and help."

And help they did as Patikas firstly snapped up livewire midfielder Robert Bustos and then his former Sydney City and Olympic teammate Abbas Saad. Both have proven revelations at Henson Park leading from the front as Canterbury Marrickville chase points in a desperate effort to get close to that aim of a top five spot.

"It's never easy," remarked Patikas, "but I am here for the long haul. This side has a lot of potential and I hope to able to get the very best out of them and be as competitive as possible."

In concluding my chat with Jim, I couldn't help but ask him if there was any chance that Super League fans would get to see him don a Canterbury Marrickville shirt and take to the field once more.

"I've thought about," he laughs "I'd love to but the knee is just too old!"

Round 13 Round-Up

No change at the top again last weekend with Dulwich Hill holding out the improving llawarra Lions 1-0 at Arlington Oval where the Lions linchpin Marashall Soper was sent off midway through the second half.

The only goal of the game arrived in the 42nd minute from the reinstated Robert Todorovski who was able to carry the ball through the defence unaided and after beating the defence slot low past the keeper. It was the latest in a sequence of winning results by the inner-suburbs side which a week earlier had beaten deadly rivals Hajduk Wanderers to complete a double. Todorovski had been injured and struggled to regain his place in the side with the success the other players had achieved, but after scoring off the bench the previous week he started this one and repaid the faith of his coach Bill Pilovski with the winner, not the first time he has done so this season.

Saturday in Bathurst was one of the coldest days this year with snow falling on some hills in the outer areas.

Despite the conditions, Fraser Park were confident after their 7 - 0 drubbing of Bathurst in Sydney a few weeks earlier that they could provide a repeat performance. They started the game in great fashion when only in the third minute of the game a shot by Neil Coggin brought out a spectacular save from the Bathurst keeper Steve Drynan.

Bathurst lifted after this and was soon on the attack. In the 16th minute a great shot from 17 year old Dubbo based defender Lindsay Jobsen found the head of Mark Rooke to open the scoring for Bathurst. Two minutes later Ben Crowley beat the defence and with a one on one with the keeper made no mistake to make the score 2 - 0.

Bathurst really looked the better team in the first half, the only joy for Fraser Park coming in the 38th minute when they broke down the right and a cross found the unmarked Ben Burrows who headed the ball into the roof of the net. In the 38th minute Brett Noran made a break down the right and as the defence stood off him he cut infield and his shot beat the diving keeper to again give the Bathurst side a two goal buffer going into the break.

The second half started with Fraser Park really going on the attack with Ivo De Jesus scoring twice inside two minutes with one goal bringing strong claims of off side from the home supporters. In the 58th minute Burrows again scored to give the visitors a 4 -3 lead and at this point they thought they had the game in their keeping, but someone forgot to tell Bathurst.

In the 65th minute Scott Mutton found a way past the defence and with a one on one with the keeper gave him no chance to grab a 4 - 4 draw for Bathurst.

It was a great game to watch and was played in a great spirit.

Despite Hajduk Wanderers still being without four players due to injuries, they still managed to thrash Hurstville Minotaurs 4-1 at a chilly Hurstville Oval on Sunday.

Saturday's match at Hammondville Oval between Moorebank and Stanmore, played under strong windy and freezing conditions, provided an entertaining match for the small crowd that defied the weather.

Both teams played a powerful but cautious game, trying to dominate the midfield. Stanmore's new signing Levi Stephen settled in a dominant attacking position creating several chances which went astray due to poor finishing. Moorebank's defence was flawless under pressure and goalkeeper Adam Confoy came to the rescue on several occasions. Moorebank's counterattack was always threatening with Liavas and Dunlop combining well to cause problems for Stanmore's defence. The final 10 minutes became a war of attrition with both teams playing a hard physical game, but not being able to come up with the winner.

Rockdale City Suns made heavy weather of their game, at the somewhat spartan Upper Eastwood, against Ryde City on Sunday. Though they ran out 3-2 winners and were never behind in the game they wasted numerous opportunities and could have paid dearly as Ryde fought back twice in the game to almost gain a point.

First Division's leading scorer, Spase Najdoski, was able to beat Ryde keeper Andrew Prentice with a low shot from 15 yards out that took a wicked bounce as it deceived the unsighted Ryde man in the 37th minute. Rockdale lost Steve Cklamovski to a red card in the 30th minute, but were always in the game and were denied a number of times by Prentice as well as wasting clear cut chances.

On the break in the 67th Rob Portelli should have done better than fire straight the the Rockdale keeper, but atoned in the 74th when fed the ball after Rockdale had lost possession wide in their own defensive zone. Marko Vuckovic restored the lead for Rockdale in the 81st after making space and htting a low drive from the edge of the area into the bottom right corner. Peter Apolovski made a surging run down the right in the 88th to deliver a square ball for substitute Anthony Adamo to tap in at the far post, but Ryde came back again with Portelli getting his second from a 30 yard lofted shot into the top right corner, with the keeper only fractionally off his line.

Looking to Round 14

Front runners DULWICH HILL continue to defy all comers and seem to have a defence which is discplined to the nth degree. They are certainly a different combination to the one which finished bottom last season and have been doing the right thing at both ends of the pitch. A couple of seasons ago they went through the season unbeaten in 2nd Division and are even more defiant in First Division this year. Everyone expects them to crack soon, but another week goes by and still they stay solid.

They face yet another test, the latest of a weekly challenge for them, when they travel to Abruzzi Oval on Saturday.

A C UNITED, their opponents, were outdone in a catch up game by Auburn last Saturday on the same ground in a last minute loss, but bounced back next day in the scheduled game at Mona Park to run out convincing winners 4-1. A C are an ambitious team and will not want to slip up again.

A win by the home side should not come as a complete shock as they looked the part in the first meeting and are bound to be primed for this one. Dulwich will not make it easy for them and the most likely outcome is a draw.

The same day STANMORE HAWKS take on BATHURST 75 at Arlington Oval bent on gaining revenge for a narrow 3-2 loss in the Central West in much warmer conditions than we have been getting recently.

This very young Stanmore side lacks strike power right now, but after two scoreless draws against solid opponents must fancy their chances of winning another game this weekend against a side which has won few matches this season.

On Sunday at Ian McLennan Park ILLAWARRA LIONS return from their close fought 1-0 loss at Dulwich Hill to take on the slick HAJDUK WANDERERS outfit. With Marshall Soper sent off last Sunday, the locals will be under-strength for this important clash and Hajduk are, of course, a class act.

Now with Jeff Suzor in the side in some way compensating for the loss of both Boudaher boys a few weeks back, Hajduk are going to be one of the main threats to the leaders should they drop points as the season winds down.

One of the most interesting games on Sunday is ROCKDALE CITY SUNS hosting of AUBURN UNITED at the Rockdale Soccer Centre. Still smarting from their home loss to A C United after such a great win on the Saturday, Auburn are sure to approach the game in a positive mood. Rockdale scraped home, away to Ryde, where missed chances could have cost them dearly and are not guaranteed to win at home these days. Auburn, despite one win from two games last weekend, are slipping behind the pack and really need another win quite badly of they are to press for a top five spot. This game against one of the most free-spirited opponents they are likely to face at least gives them a fighting chance of getting one.

FRASER PARK figured in yet another high scoring draw in Bathurst and will hope to do better at home when they meet RYDE CITY GUNNERS than they have in several other local matches which have proved disappointing for them.

Ryde continues to improve and have been getting beaten by a single goal for a while now. This match at the Marrickville ground will be another chance for them to get that breakthrough first win and Fraser will need to stay tight to get the win they crave. Rob Portelli scored two fine goals last weekend and if his talented striking partner Wayne Spiteri can get into the groove Ryde could yet provide the upset material here.

MSC LIVERPOOL entertains the side they always seem to have the wood on, HURSTVILLE CITY MINOTAURS at Hammondville Oval.

Hurstville always work hard in their matches and have claimed some prized scalps this term already. MSC Liverpool are a very good defensive unit and also capable of winning more than their share so it will not be easy for the Minotaurs. A draw would be a result neither side would really want, but it does look the most likely outcome here.

SECOND DIVISION 2000

by Paul Goodwin

Round 13 in review

The top of the table clash at Bathurst Street Park saw Greystanes going down to Mt Pritchard after a game which had begun at a fast and furious pace.

Greystanes opted to go with the strong wind behind them in the first half, but the Mounties played well and kept them scoreless throughout the first half. In the second half Mounties attacked relentlessly with Richard Machado hitting the inside of the post only to see it go across goal and out for a goal kick. The veteran Machado, used as a super sub again on this occasion, was on the attack again not long after, but this time scored in the with his 63rdminute effort.

Ten minutes later Mounties goalkeeper Matt Darwin was stranded on the edge of the 18-yard box and Stuart Neilsen finished well for an equaliser by the home side. With only 10 minutes left on the clock both sides were pushed hard for the winner with the Mounties coming out on top thanks to a Marty Canova strike in the 83rd minute. With Greystanes then applying a lot of pressure the Mounties defence of Peter Vrlic, Andrew Vicaretti and Clinton Green all continued their great form to deny them any further openings.

After four consecutive losses by the odd goal, Hakoah were in no mood for anything but a whitewash over last-placed Sydney District at ES Marks Field on Sunday. Terry Sperber opened the scoring in the opening 10 minutes after a beautifully lobbed pass from Eytan Rubinstein and scored a second just minutes later. Restored keeper David Solsky made three outstanding saves to nullify the Sydney fightback then Shai Mendelson lit rip with one of his trademark drives from outside the box to have the Sky Blues 3-0 ahead at the break.

After the interval, during which coach Ricky Budini urged his charges to go on with it, Mendelson made it four and Sperber sealed his first hat-trick for the season not long after.

A disputed penalty, put away by Sydney District, saw the visitors pull one back, but within seconds Chad Karpes scored his first for the year with a well timed drive that the Sydney keeper could only deflect into the net. Reserve grade striker Kevin Smaller scored his first goal in the top grade with a well timed header to make it 7-1.

Best for Hakoah were Terry Sperber, Gareth Martin and Shai Mendelson.

Uni of NSW and Mount Druitt played out a scoreless draw at David Philips Field, but the game was full of fire and the visitors had a goal by Ambrose Marncia disallowed and also made strong claims for a penalty which was turned down.

Hills United did well to record their second 3-1 win on the trot when successful over Central Coast Lakers at Fred Caterson Reserve on the Saturday.

Sydney University came from a goal down at half time to beat a luckless and injury ravaged Belmore Hercules 5-1 at St Pauls College on the same day.

Hurstville won the derby against White City at Hurstville Oval 2-1, also on Saturday, with the locals being winners despite being cut back to ten men from the 17th minute when ace marksman Tony Mihaljevic was marched for a tackle from behind on the half way touchline.

White City also lost their best striker midway through the first half when Danny Poljak clashed heavily with Hurstville defender Robert Harmat, sustaining concussion and a suspected fractured jaw midway.

What's ahead in Round 14

Some of the top clubs in the division meet in some intriguing clashes.

While GREYSTANES have what amounts to a breather when they travel to Flockhart Park to meet SYDNEY DISTRICT, others like Mount Pritchard and Hurstville have much tougher encounters. Greystanes have lost two in a row now, so meeting last placed District should allow them a confidence boost if they can record a solid win as anticipated.

MOUNT PRITCHARD, who are showing excellent form at the moment, have old foes MOUNT DRUITT to play at Cook Park in a crucial Saturday game. These two sides always seem to produce a derby atmosphere and this is likely to be no different. A draw looks a strong possibility.

WHITE CITY have to regroup after their narrow loss to Hurstville when they take on Uni of NSW at Chisholm Park the same day. The small pitch may suit the home side best, but Uni are a tough opponent and anything could happen in this one, with goals maybe at a premium.

HURSTVILLE ZSC are aiming high again this season, but can afford few slip-ups as there is a pack of similarly placed clubs around them. One of those sides is SYDNEY UNIVERSITY which has been scoring freely of late and will pose a real threat to Hurstville. The two sides played out a 0-0 draw at the start of the season and it was a gripping game. Another draw is quite possible.

BELMORE HERCULES have slumped as an injury crisis has hit hard, with many at Blick Oval likely to be out until the end of the campaign. The defence is well led by George Haniotis, so maybe visiting HILLS UNITED could find it hard to break through. Neither side has drawn a game, but that statistic may change after this match.

The last match is at North Lakes Oval where CENTRAL COAST LAKERS meet HAKOAH and where revenge will be on the minds of the locals who were hammered first time at E S Marks Field. That high scoring game may not be repeated here, but Hakoah will again prove strong opponents and a double is not beyond them as they appear to be back in form, though most of their success has been achieved on its own patch.

LEADING SCORERS

11 - Stuart Neilson (Greystanes)
9 - Terry Sperber (Hakoah)
8 - Tony Mihaljevic (Hurstville ZSC), Danny Poljak (White City)

The Canterbury Marrickville G12 team extended their unbeaten run this season to 12 games as they swept aside a gallant Leichhardt Tigers at Henson Park.

On a bitterly cold Sunday morning both teams were hampered by a strong wind but it was the class of the Berries that came through as they scored three times late in the second half to add to a first half strike by Dimitripoulos.

Three of Canterbury Marrickville's goals came from some distance - a testament to how well the Tigers defended - but the Berries were always just quicker to the ball and stronger in the tackle. After a slow start to the game the home side's Brown came close to converting a left-wing cross, but Leichhardt's goalkeeper just beat him to the ball. Brown copped a knock for his trouble, but two minutes later his side went ahead.

From 30 metres out there seemed little danger when Dimitripoulos, playing at right wing-back, received the ball, but after looking up he unleashed a shot that flew into the back of the net.

The Tigers had found it difficult to clear their lines, but the Berries must have been worried at half time that it had taken only a goal of such quality to breach their opponents defence.

Canterbury continued to press forward in the second period, and the Tigers were left to hope that striker Amassah could pick up some crumbs in attack.

With nine minutes of the second period gone Sugiantara hit a cross shot from the right that whizzed across the face of goal, as the Berries looked to get the second goal to give them a comfort zone.

That goal came just five minutes later, and like the first it came from distance. A direct free-kick was awarded to the Berries about 25 metres from goal, and after one player dummied over the ball Suttor stepped up to blast home in similar style to his side's first goal.

At 2-0 there was never a way back for the Tigers, and less than a minute later they went 3-0 down.Although the goal wasn't as spectacular as the first two it was still nicely taken from close range, Sugiantara side footing home from nine metres out past the despairing goalkeeper. With seconds to go Canterbury Marricvkville made it 4-0 to give them a slightly flattering score-line, Esbel getting involved in the play before hitting one home also from about 25 metres out.

As impressive as Canterbury Marrickville's no 16 Dimitripoulos was, especially after moving into a more central role, my Man of the Match went to Esbel, who defended well and looked good on the ball. His goal at the end was the icing on the cake for both him and Canterbury Marrickville.

The win means Canterbury Marrickville are two points clear of Blacktown at the top of the table, while the defeat for Leichhardt sees them in 12th place with four wins and four defeats from their eleven games. The Tigers have struggled to score this season - just 12 goals in 11 games - but they have only conceded 12 too. It took three special goals by the home side to down them here.

Editorial

With only five rounds left in Super League 2000, and with the half-way mark reached in the other parts of the competition, it's timely to remind everyone of a few key activities over coming months.

Firstly, on Sunday 2 July, the NSW Soccer Federation is honouring some of the greats of New South Wales soccer when the streets named after them at Glenwood are officially named.

The 12 greats are Atti Abonyi, Graham Arnold, Ray Baartz, the late Reg Date, John Kosmina, Ron Lord, Manfred Schaefer, Anissa Tann-Darby, John Warren, John Watkiss, Peter Wilson and Charlie Yankos. The streets were named as part of the deal involving the purchase of the Federation's land where houses are now being constructed with great speed!

The small ceremony will take place on the site office in Charlie Yankos Street at 11.00am.

From 8-15 July, we host the National Talent Identification Championships at Valentine Park in the 15s and 16s age groups. This tournament will be used to select the next Joeys squad (Under 17) and everyone is welcome to attend. As well as the boys' teams, the AIS women's team (which is very similar to the Matildas) will be participating as a warm-up for the Olympic Games women's tournament in which the Matildas will play.

Super League Grand Final Day is set for Sunday 30 July. Just where it will be depends on which of the first grade teams make it through. The Grand Final will be played for all three grades, so it's a big day for the whole of Super League and we're making a family day of it with balloon sculptures and face painting for kids and half-time prizes to be won!

On Saturday 12 August, we move up-market to Star City Casino for the Super League Gold Medal Dinner. Last year's Gold Medal was won by Central Coast's Peter Preston in an exciting photo finish with Fairfield's Matthew Borg. I can assure you, having seen how the counting is going, that this year's is just as exciting.

The Gold Medal Dinner is a Black Tie event and includes a three-course meal, drinks, entertainment from comedian Brian Doyle and MC, Andy Harper. A lucky door prize of a weekend for two at Star City will also be up for grabs. The price for the Gold Medal Dinner is $85 per person including GST and you can reserve your place by contacting us on 9629 1800 or by e-mail to info@soccernsw.com.au

Finally, our Golf Day scheduled for last week had to be postponed and a new date has been set as part of the lead-up to the new summer league season - to be known as the NSW Premier League - commencing on 3 November 2000. The date is currently pencilled-in as 11 October, so no excuses as there's heaps of time to get organised for this one!

In the meantime, in case you hadn't realised, winter doesn't officially start until 1 June and it kicks off with a full round of fixtures in Super League and the rest of the NSWSF competitions - and don't forget to catch the Matildas against China at the Sydney Football Stadium on Friday 2 June, along with the World Champion USA women's team, Canada, New Zealand and Japan.

Enjoy the feast of football.
